All acts done by the Attorney in Fact pursuant to this Durable Power of Attorney shall have the same effect and inure for my benefit and bind me and my successors in interest as if I personally performed said act. In addition, this Durable Power of Attorney shall not be affected by my subsequent disability or incapacity or by lapse of time.

2. Durable Power.

(a) Powers Granted. The Durable Power granted to my Attorney in Fact is intended to be an unlimited general power of attorney and shall include the full power and authority to do all acts, deeds, matters and things whatsoever in and about my property and affairs, of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated, including, without limitation the following:

(ix) The power to make, receive, sign, endorse, execute, acknowledge, deliver and possess such applications, contracts, agreements, options, covenants, conveyances, deeds, security agreements, bills of sale, leases, mortgages, assignments, insurance policies, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, documents of title, bills, bonds, debentures, checks, drafts, bills of exchange, letters of credit, notes, stock certificates, proxies, warrants, commercial papers, receipts, withdrawal receipts and deposit instruments relating to accounts or deposits in, or certificates of deposit of, banks, savings and loan or other institutions or associations, proofs of loss, evidences of debts, releases, and satisfaction of mortgages, liens, judgments, security agreements and other debts and obligations and such other instruments in writing of whatever kind and nature as may be necessary or proper in the exercise of the rights and powers herein granted;

(xiv) The power to provide for my support and protection, including, without limitation, provision for food, lodging, housing, medical services, recreation and travel;

(xv) The power to contract for or employ agents, accountants, advisors, attorneys and others for services in connection with the performance of any powers herein;

(xvi) The power to borrow money for any of the purposes described herein, and secure such borrowings in such manner as the attorney in fact shall deem appropriate, and use any credit card held in my name for any of the purposes described herein;

(xvii) The power to do, take, and perform all and every act and thing whatsoever requisite, proper, or necessary to be done, in the exercise of any of the rights and powers herein granted, as fully to all intents and purposes as I might or could do if personally present, with full power of substitution or revocation, hereby ratifying and confirming all that said Attorney in Fact, or her successor or successors, shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of this power of attorney and the rights and powers herein granted.

(b) Interpretation. This Durable Power is to be construed and interpreted as an unlimited general power of attorney covering all of my property and interests in property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, whether presently owned or hereafter acquired. The enumeration of specific items, rights, acts, or powers herein is not intended to limit or restrict the general powers herein granted to said Attorney in Fact.

(c) Commencement and Term of Powers. The rights, powers and authority of this Durable Power herein granted shall commence upon the date of execution hereof.

(d) Termination of Financial Durable Power. This Financial Durable Power shall remain in full force and effect until terminated in accordance with this Section 2.(d). Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Durable Power shall terminate upon the earlier of the following to occur:

(i) upon my execution of a written instrument clearly and specifically revoking this Durable Power, properly notarized, and delivered to the last known address of the Attorney in Fact; provided, however, that my Attorney in Fact may require, prior to recognizing any such revocation, an affidavit of one (1) physician, duly licensed within the state of which I am a resident, whom has been engaged in the practice of medicine for at least three years, which states that I am not incapacitated or disabled and that I am capable of managing my own estate and financial and personal affairs;

(ii) in the event my Attorney in Fact is my husband and in the event my husband and I obtain a divorce then upon the entry of a final decree of divorce;

(iii) upon my death.

My death or the revocation of this Durable Power (as described above) does not revoke or terminate the Durable Power established herein as to the Attorney in Fact or other person who, without actual (as opposed to constructive) knowledge of my death or the revocation of said Durable Power, acts in good faith under the power. Any action so taken, unless otherwise specifically invalid or unenforceable, binds my successors in interest.

3. No Guardian. By executing this instrument upon the advice of legal counsel, I have carefully and deliberately created the means and manner by which I desire that my person and property be cared for, managed and protected in the event I shall become unable to execute such responsibilities myself. Accordingly, it is my intention and my desire that I herewith express in the strongest possible terms that no guardian or conservator be appointed for me so long as there is an Attorney in Fact named in this instrument who is willing and able to act and serve under this instrument. In the event a court of competent jurisdiction must appoint a guardian or conservator for me, I hereby nominate the Attorney in Fact named in this instrument to act as such guardian or conservator for me. I request that any court of competent jurisdiction that receives and is asked to act upon a petition for the appointment of a guardian or conservator for me give the greatest possible weight to my intention and desires as expressed herein.

4. Effect of Subsequent Fiduciaries. If, following the execution of this Durable Power of Attorney, a court of my domicile appoints a conservator, guardian of my estate, or other fiduciary, such fiduciary shall not have the power to revoke or amend this Durable Power of Attorney nor to replace the Attorney in Fact herein designated, notwithstanding the provisions of the Uniform Durable Power of Attorney Act, Miss. Code Ann. §§ 87-3-101 through 87-3-113.

5. Recording. This document may be executed in a manner suitable for recording. In this regard, either the principal or the Attorney in Fact may record this document in the office of the Register of Deeds in the County wherein this document is executed or in any other County wherein it is used.

CERTIFICATION

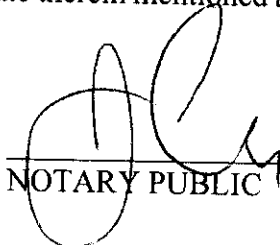

I certify that I have read the provisions herein, that the provisions of this document have been explained to me to my satisfaction, that I understand such provisions and that such provisions state my wishes and desires under the circumstances described.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have executed this Durable Power of Attorney on this 11th day of June, 2007.
